JUSTICE BLATCHFORD STRICKEN.

Attacked with Paralysis at Newport—His Death Expected.

NEWPORT, R. I., June 19.—Associate Justice Samuel Blatchford of the United States Supreme Court has been stricken with paralysis at his cottage on Greenough Place.

It is thought that he cannot recover and his family have been told to prepare for the worst.

It is understood that he had three slight shocks in Washington before coming here, and when he arrived last week it was noticed that he was feeble and that he gave evidence of having suffered from paralytic shocks.

It is thought that he can live but a few weeks. No one is allowed to see him.
